

FISCAL NOTE

HB 944 - SB 1179

February 26, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes public agencies to contract for conveyance or transfer of real or personal property provided the newly acquired property is used for public purpose and the respective governing bodies authorize such conveyance or transfer and determine that the terms and conditions set forth are appropriate. Exempts public agencies from declaring such property as surplus and from contrary requirements in any budget or purchasing act, public or private, prior to the conveyance or transfer.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Present law states that any one or more public agencies may contract with any one or more public agencies to perform any governmental service, activity, or undertaking that each public agency entering into the contract is authorized by law to perform.
- This bill adds that any one or more public agencies may contract with any one or more public agencies for the conveyance or transfer of property, real or personal, if certain conditions are met.
- Property received by conveyance or transfer is utilized for a public purpose.
- Governing body of each public agency that is a party to the contract authorizes such conveyance or transfer.
